The prespect for carrying the State and electing Mr. Festifician (Governor, with a Democratic Againsture to back hairs, is most excellent. For years ago Hayes was only discussed by 1,000 majority, and although last discussed by 1,000 majority of Governor, and the then great popularity of Governor, and the public mind not as well disposed, the Democracy reduced 4,000 Republican majority to less than 3,000. The Aspiring Secretary.

The dispatches say that it was the intention of Secretary Bouwell to resign his seat in the Cabinet if the administration had released to support the ultra Radionitickets in Mississippi and Texas. Boutwell strikes for the Presidency at the end of the present term. He is trying to shape men and events to his purposes. He aims to be the leader of the administration, its central power, and to have himself recognized as such. He wishes to be looked upon as the main-spring, the master-soirt. his support is in that case a matter of much consequence. If the conservative Republicans of Ministeppi have the nerve is meaning to the will or the Frankent and his Cabines, and if Deak has the nerve to assept the nomination, all will go light. Dent, standing upon the proper ground, such ground as Walker occupied in Virginia and Senter in Tennesses, can carry the Ministeppi election by a reat majority.

Grant, according to one of our special dispatches, says in a private letter to Deat "If the Conservative are to win, I should prefer your election to that of any other person likely to be elected; but, as the maitter now looks, it seems to me that the unight of my influence about he piece, to the other party." The weight of his influence? nized as such. He wishes to be looked upon as the main-spring, the master-sprint, of the Government. He sepires to be desmad President and Cabines. He seeks to control and subject Grant to all his uses. And he cannot be said at present to have wholly falled in his ambitious gams. What his future may be we know not. Grant is vain, jealous, envious, and suspicious, and he may some day astonish his financial Secretary as the latter was never astonthe exact avoirdupois or troy weight of his influence! Let him state his own estimate of it if he is not afraid of dying in a spann of modesty. The power of the patrooage of his administration was used in behalf of

The Democratic eminerous enough in the Mobile Congressional District to elect the Democratic candidate by a majority of two thousand, but so many of them neglected to you that the Radical candidate was elected. The Mobile Register is exceedingly severe and bitter upon the Democratic recreasint. No doubt they deserve the worst that their indirect triends say or are likely to say of them. Such a weight of responsibility as lies upon their shoulders must make them look atcomeshouldered in the eyes of the Democracy as long as they live. No tharshave they in the glory that has just been wen by the brave and determined efforts of the great-hearted patriots of the South. what the result was in those two States-in one of them a majority against the ad-ministration and the ultra Radicals of 40,000, and in the other 68,000. One would think that Grant might as well be dumb in regard to the weight of his influence and the weight of the influence of his ad-ministration. The weight of both influ-ences is oridently a dead weight. The conservative Republicans of Mississippi can well afford to defy it, as we are as-sured they almost universally do.

But let the feeble old seul have his own way. If his numiliations in Virginia and Tennesses are not esofigh, let him try the effects of still greater humiliations in Mississippi of CITX ITEIMS.
